

RAMSEY/WASHINGTON RECYCLING AND ENERGY

Be a Battery Hero Social Posts and Informational PDF

1.

Rechargeable nickel-metal hydride batteries can be found in things like power tools, two-way radios, digital cameras and cordless phones.

Be a battery hero and bring all batteries to a drop-off location near you. LINK TO COUNTY SITE

2.

Button batteries can be easy to miss because they are found in so many household items like flashlights, watches, remote controls and toys.

Don't let batteries get past you! Be a battery hero and bring all batteries to a drop-off location near you. LINK TO COUNTY SITE

3.

Lithium ion batteries can be dangerous if punctured or crushed. They can ignite or explode when damaged, putting lives and property at risk.

Don't let batteries get the best of you. Be a battery hero and bring all batteries to a drop-off location near you. LINK TO COUNTY SITE

4.

Nickel cadmium batteries contain cadmium, which can be toxic to the environment. These batteries can be found in things like power tools, garden path lights and remote controlled cars.

Be a battery hero and bring all batteries to a drop-off location near you. LINK TO COUNTY SITE

RAMSEY/WASHINGTON RECYCLING AND ENERGY

Be a Battery Hero Social Posts and Informational PDF

5.

If batteries are thrown in the trash or recycling, they can cause a spark which could start a fire and endanger people and property.

Put batteries in their place by bringing them to a drop-off location near you. LINK TO COUNTY SITE

6.

Don't let used batteries cause fires when they end up in the trash or recycling.

Put batteries in their place by bringing them to a drop-off location near you. LINK TO COUNTY SITE

7.

Batteries are a big part of our everyday lives. They can be found in so many devices and electronics that it's easy to accidentally throw them in the trash. But batteries can cause problems – like fires! – when thrown in the trash or recycling. Learn about different types of batteries, where they can be found and how to properly dispose of them. LINK TO PDF

8.

Fire prevention week is Oct. 3-9. Did you know that batteries may catch fire when thrown in the trash or recycling? Be a Battery Hero!

Put batteries in their place by bringing them to a drop-off location near you. LINK TO COUNTY SITE

