1.0 RFP Introduction and Background

1.1. Solicitation Description and Process

Terms and Conditions governing this solicitation, including applicable insurance requirements, are included as a part of this document. The Partnership on Waste and Energy (“Partnership”) has no obligation to enter into a contract as a result of this inquiry. This Request for Proposal (RFP) is intended to solicit proposals from proposers capable of meeting the Partnership’s need for a professional consultant to conduct a study on recycling & reuse.

The Partnership expressly reserves the right to amend or withdraw this solicitation at any time and to reject any or all solicitation responses. The Partnership reserves the right to waive any minor irregularities in the solicitation process.

This RFP and the selected solicitation response(s) to this RFP will be incorporated into the contract resulting from this solicitation; provided, however, that the contract may contain terms different from or in addition to this RFP and the successful proposal. For purposes of this RFP, the term “vendor,” “contractor,” “offeror,” “Proposer” and “proposer” are considered to have the same meaning.

1.2. About The Partnership on Waste and Energy

Hennepin, Ramsey and Washington counties collaborate in areas of waste and energy management, including legislation and policy development, communication and outreach, planning, and evaluation of waste processing technologies. They do this through a joint powers agreement between Hennepin County and Ramsey/Washington Recycling & Energy (R&E) – the resulting entity is called the Partnership on Waste and Energy. Combined, the three counties are home to about 13% of the Minnesota population.

1.3. Purpose of RFP

Accurate waste data is essential to informed decision-making, strategic planning, and tracking progress toward solid waste management goals. Metro counties rely on hauler and facility data collected by the Minnesota Pollution Control Agency (MPCA), data sharing with other counties, and a variety of other approaches to compile waste data.

The purpose of this study is to evaluate and improve the accuracy, completeness, and reporting of recycling data, with a particular focus on commercial recycling. Currently, recycling tonnage is tracked primarily through incomplete hauler reporting and data from permitted facilities. This approach does not capture all recycling activity. The consultant will assess current data collection methodologies, identify gaps, and propose recommendations to enhance data quality and comprehensiveness.

For the purpose of this study, recycling is defined as the material reported in the MPCA SCORE Program Report and the MPCA Metropolitan County Annual MSW Data Report. This study does not consider materials recovered from non-MSW waste streams such as demolition or construction debris, agricultural wastes, or non-hazardous industrial wastes. Commercial recycling includes business, institutional, and multifamily properties where the units share recycling service and the recycling is collected as part of a commercial route.

The need for better measurement extends to reuse. Tracking reuse activities presents unique challenges compared to recycling, as reuse often occurs through informal or decentralized systems that lack standardized data collection mechanisms. Unlike recycling, which is more easily quantified through tonnage at facilities, reuse happens in diverse settings such as secondhand shops, repair services, and peer-to-peer exchanges, making it difficult to measure accurately.

This study will achieve the following objectives:

- Describe existing methods for collecting and reporting metro recycling data.
- Identify and address the shortcomings of recycling data collection and reporting.
- Explore options for measuring reuse.

Proposers’ responses will be evaluated and ranked based on the criteria described in this RFP. If a service is available that meets the Partnership’s needs, the Partnership may then enter into additional budget discussions and a contract with the selected proposer. The Partnership anticipates selecting one vendor for all proposed services associated with this RFP.

In addition to soliciting written responses, this document provides information to assist proposers in preparing their responses and facilitates the subsequent evaluation and comparison process. In that regard, this RFP:

- Provides information essential to soliciting meaningful recommendations and realistic commitments from the proposers
- Specifies the desired format and content of proposals in response to this RFP
- Outlines Partnership evaluation and selection procedures
- Establishes a schedule for the preparation and submission of proposals in response to this RFP
- Establishes a performance standard for the selected proposer.

1.4. Contract Term & Schedule

The initial term of the contract is expected to be from February 10, 2025 through June 30, 2025. A longer term may be agreed upon or the initial term could be extended provided it is mutually agreed upon and determined necessary to complete the project.

1.5. Costs

The resulting contract fee shall be a rate setting agreement with a maximum not-to exceed to be determined as appropriate for services rendered and reimbursable expenses. Rates shall be negotiated.

1.6. RFP Schedule of Events

The following RFP Schedule of Events represents the best estimate of the schedule that the Partnership will follow. The Partnership has performed planning work and plans to meet the dates described below. Vendors are encouraged to hold the demonstration dates listed. If a component of the schedule is delayed, it shall be anticipated that the remaining components will also be delayed by a similar number of days. Any significant change to the schedule will be published via RFP Addendum.

There is no express or implied obligation for the Partnership to reimburse responding firms for any expenses incurred in preparing solicitation responses to this Request for Proposal and the Partnership will not reimburse responding firms for these expenses, nor will the Partnership pay any subsequent costs associated with the provision of any additional information or presentation, or to procure a contract for these services.

1.9. Questions and Inquiries

It shall be the responsibility of the Proposer to inquire about any portion of the RFP that is not fully understood and susceptible to more than one interpretation. Written inquiries are required. All questions concerning the RFP must reference the page number, section heading, and paragraph, if applicable. Questions may be submitted via email and Proposers shall insert “Recycling & Reuse Measurement Study” in the subject line. Oral communications will not be accepted. The decision to reject a Proposal is solely that of the Partnership.

1.10. Clarification and Discussion of Proposals

The Partnership may request clarifications and conduct discussions with any vendor who submits a solicitation response. Failure of a vendor to respond to such a request for additional information or clarification may result in rejection of the vendor’s proposal.

After the deadline, proposers may make a written request to withdraw proposals and provide evidence that a substantial mistake has been made. The Partnership may permit withdrawal of the proposal upon verifying that a substantial mistake has been made.

3.8 Clarification of Proposals

In order to determine if a Proposal is reasonably susceptible for award, communications by the Point of Contact identified in Table 02 or the proposal Evaluation Committee are permitted with any proposer to clarify uncertainties or eliminate confusion concerning the contents of a proposal and determine responsiveness to the RFP requirements.

the Partnership may terminate negotiations with the proposer initially selected and commence negotiations with the next highest-ranked proposer. At any point in the negotiation process, the Partnership may, at its sole discretion, terminate negotiations with any or all proposers.

3.12 Non-Collusion Statement

Proposers shall complete and sign the non-collusion statement and include it with their proposal.

Contractors shall not enter into an agreement, participate in any collusion, or otherwise take any action in restraint of free competition in connection with this solicitation or any contract which may result from its acceptance, including actions involving other contractors, competitors, Partnership staff, Partnership Board Members, Ramsey County, Hennepin County or Washington County staff. Evidence of such activity will result in rejection of the solicitation response.

4.0 Scope of Work

The Contractor will provide the following services to PWE:

Describe existing methods for collecting and reporting recycling data

- Review and describe MPCA data collection: haulers, facilities, big box stores, etc.
- Describe how the MPCA determines county of origin for waste data.
- Review and describe other sources of metro county data.
- Document reporting methodologies used by metro counties.
- Review and describe commercial and residential recycling data for each of the bullets above.

Evaluate current recycling data collection practices and identify gaps

- Analyze MPCA data and other sources of data to identify gaps, with a focus on commercial recycling data.
- Provide an overview of how much recycling is reported by Material Recovery Facilities compared to other facilities or outlets for recyclable material. Include additional analysis that breaks down the comparison into residential and commercial recycling streams.
- Discuss the role of self-hauling and backhauling recyclable material by commercial generators of waste, and how transporting recyclable material to brokers, unpermitted facilities, and end markets could result in underreporting.
- Engage as needed with select commercial entities, haulers, recycling facilities, and the MPCA to understand what data is missing from current reporting activity and the barriers to better reporting of commercial recycling data.
- Identify examples of business sectors and types, individual businesses (especially those that generate large quantities of waste), and hauling/collection operations where recycling is not adequately tracked.
- Identify specific materials that are likely underreported, and where possible, provide estimates of underreported quantities to help prioritize reporting efforts.
- Assess the extent of unreported or underreported recycling activity, with an emphasis on the commercial sector recycling.
- Identify differences in reporting methodologies among metro counties.
- Comment on where there is a risk of double counting recyclables, particularly when using a combination of generator, hauler, and facility data. Consider that double counting may also occur through the use of surveys or estimates, out-of-county data, and data from multi-use properties (residential and non-residential activity).

Propose solutions for improving data collection and reporting

- Recommend strategies to improve the reporting of recycling tonnage, including by material type, particularly for the commercial sector. This may include surveys, estimates, new reporting requirements, technology solutions, improved engagement with generators, haulers, facilities, material brokers, or end markets, or other strategies.
- Discuss options to make the reporting process more efficient.
- Provide recommendations for how to avoid double counting.
- Discuss options to increase consistency in reporting methodologies among metro counties.

Assess current reuse data collection methods

- Review and describe metro county source reduction reporting to the MPCA as part of the annual SCORE report, with a focus on community source reduction.
- Review and describe existing mechanisms for tracking reuse, including voluntary reporting from reuse organizations (e.g., thrift stores, online exchange platforms), surveys, and other available data sources.
- Identify major data gaps where reuse activities are not being captured.

Explore innovative approaches to measuring reuse

Investigate alternative methods for measuring reuse, such as:

- Surveys and self-reporting: Working with organizations and businesses involved in reuse (e.g., secondhand shops, rental services, repair facilities) to gather voluntary data on reuse activities.
- Estimation models: Developing estimation models based on sales, donations, and repair volumes to approximate reuse activity.
- Digital platforms: Leveraging digital platforms (e.g., online resale platforms, peer-to-peer sharing apps) to collect data on reuse transactions.
- Proxy metrics: Exploring a list of metrics that are not weight-based and developing conversion factors that could be applied to estimate weights.
- Tracking product lifecycles: Exploring methods to track the lifespan of goods (e.g., electronics, furniture) to better understand reuse activity, including product refurbishment and resale.

Propose a framework for measuring reuse:

- Develop a potential framework for measuring reuse activities across various sectors, with feasible methodologies for data collection, reporting, and verification.
- Ensure the framework accounts for both formal reuse activities (e.g., secondhand stores, donation centers) and informal or peer-to-peer exchanges.
- Include a strategy for integrating reuse data into broader waste management and sustainability reporting systems.

At the conclusion of the project, the Contractor will provide a comprehensive report addressing all the elements outlined in the scope of services. In addition, the Contractor will provide a Power Point slide deck summarizing the key findings and recommendations in a clear and concise format suitable for presentations.
